MR. T. FISHER UNWIN'S LIST.

JOHN OLIVER HOBBS' NEW BOOK.

THE WISDOM OF THE WISE.

By JOHN OLIVER HOBBS (Mrs. Craigie).

Cloth, 3s. 6d. net; paper, 2s. net.

SOME EARLY PRESS OPINIONS.

"Mrs. Craigie, more than any other woman who is now writing, is, in the true, manly sense, a woman of letters. She is not a woman with a few personal emotions to express; she is what a woman so rarely is—an artist.....Her comedy, 'The Wisdom of the Wise,' suggests, at times, a play of Congreve in its straightforward wit.....It turns serious at every other moment, balancing itself adroitly between sentiment and cynicism.....If it is a popular success, then the finer literary qualities of dramatic writing are not yet wholly unappreciated."—Star.

"A bright, entertaining, witty comedietta."—World.

"Mrs. Craigie confers an obligation upon all who can appreciate bright character-drawing and lively writing."—Globe.

"Abundantly clever and refined.....Its author's wit and elegance of fancy provide the necessary good things.....Highly agreeable to read."—Scotsman.

"All that the characters say is worth listening to. There is a truth in every bantering phrase, a moral in every poignant sentence."—Daily Mail.

"It is in many ways clever and delightful.....If it had been published in book form, with some such title—to adopt Mrs. Craigie's earlier manner—as 'A Duke, some puppets, a historian, an heiress—and marriage,' it would probably have been an enormous success, a pointed satire upon the matrimonial cynicism of the upper classes, and everybody would have wondered why it was not at once produced on the stage. It possesses, moreover, not only these qualifications for literary success, but a quality which is far more important—intention."—Speaker.

I. PAGES from a JOURNAL. Essays, Notes, and Tales from a Journal of the last Thirty Years. By MARK RUTHERFORD, Author of "Clara Hopgood," &c. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

The Contents comprise such subjects as: A Visit to Carlyle—June—The Break of a Great Drought—Spinoza—Faith—Sir Walter Scott's Use of the Supernatural—and some Notes on Milton.

"Will not fail to be welcome to those who have made the acquaintance of the works of the writer."—Daily News.

AN IMPORTANT ADDITION TO "UNWIN'S LIBRARY OF LITERARY HISTORY."

II. A LITERARY HISTORY of AMERICA. By Barrett WENDELL, Professor of English at Harvard University. With Frontispiece. Cloth, 16s.

"This solid and well-digested treatise deserves a welcome from any reader who wishes to be exactly informed upon the details, ideals, and tendencies of the rich literature which she has had."—Scotsman.

"A workmanlike volume, which will give any student a fair idea of the work of American authors.....Is likely to be useful to those preparing for examinations."—Publishers' Circular.

A FASCINATING NEW TRAVEL BOOK.

III. AMONG the BERBERS of ALGERIA. By ANTHONY WILKIN, Author of "On the Nile with a Camera," &c. Fully Illustrated. Cloth, 16s.

"Mr. Wilkin is fond of travel, knows where to seek his adventures, and how to enjoy them. He is also a good photographer and an interesting writer; so that it is with some anticipation that we turn over the pages of his new volume.It provides us with a unique glimpse of life throughout the wide country of Algeria.....It is bright with the spirit of adventure and sparkling descriptions."—Daily Chronicle.

IV. TRAMPING with TRAMPS. Studies and Sketches of Vagabond Life. By JOSIAH FLYNT. Fully Illustrated. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

"A book—neither fiction nor war-book—that will keep every reader's attention chained down from page 1 to page 398, and set his tongue going about it afterwards.....Deserves to become a classic, both as immensely good reading and as invaluable material for the sociologist and reformer."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"A work which will be read with interest by all who study the important social question of vagabondage."—Morning Post.

V. THE JEW in LONDON. A Study in Racial Character and Present Day Conditions. With an Introduction by Canon BARNETT, a Preface by the Right Hon. JAMES BRYCE, M.P., and an Important Map specially made for the volume. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, 6s.

"A careful and instructive study of the Jewish question, especially as it affects London, alike from the social, industrial, and religious points of view.It may be read with profit alike by those who concern themselves with practical questions of a social and economic kind, and by those whose interest lies rather in studies of a historical and religious order."—Glasgow Herald.

"A collection of well-verified facts and interpretations which sheds a most serviceable light upon some obscure racial and industrial problems.....A very thorough piece of work."—Daily Chronicle.

FIVE NEW NOVELS.

I. SARAH, "P.G." The Experiences of a Paying Guest. By H. SANT MARTIN-LANYON. Second Edition. Crown 8vo, cloth, 6s.

"In 'Sarah, "P.G."' Mrs. H. Sant Martin-Lanyon has come near to writing one of the most fascinating novels of the season."—Daily Express.

II. VANITY. Being the Confessions of a Court Modiste. By RITA. Second Edition. 6s.

LADIES.—Do you desire some valuable wrinkles on how to dress? Do you know how a number of the smart set clothe themselves for nothing? Do you wish to know how you should look when properly gowned? Would you like to know all about the ins and outs of a Court modiste's business? Do you want a really nice present to send to a friend?

If you want any of these things, BUY "RITA'S VANITY," The Confessions of a Court Modiste.

III. EDWARD BARRY, South Sea Pearler. By LOUIS BECKE, Author of "By Reef and Palm," &c. Unwin's Green Cloth Library. 6s.

"One of the most exciting stories of the sea we have read for many a long year.....Mr. Becke is a master of narrative, and such is the swift passage of events that the reader sits with held breath devouring whole pages at a glance. It is the most absorbing romance since 'Treasure Island.'"—Echo.

IV. TRINITY BELLS. A Tale of Old New York. By AMELIA E. BARR. Profusely Illustrated and with Decorated Cover. 6s.

"Mrs. Barr has written many good stories, but we do not remember any one that we like better than this."—Lloyd's News.

"An excellent little tale."—Daily Telegraph.

V. THE STORY of the TREASURE SEEKERS. Being the Adventures of the Bastable Children in Search of a Fortune. By E. NESBIT. Illustrated by Gordon Browne and Lewis Baumer. Cloth, 6s.

"A delight to read."—Dundee Advertiser.

"We cannot realise anybody who could fail to enjoy it."—World.

THE CITY TEMPLE PULPIT.

Sermons by the Rev. JOSEPH PARKER, D.D.

"After reading these sermons by the famous preacher whose reputation is so world-wide, we feel here indeed we possess the results of sanctified genius. Dr. Parker lights his own fire, and his originality is extraordinary. He is a Bible-inspired man. In fact, his love of the Bible comes out in every line. The prayers at the beginning of these sermons are full of pathos, directness, communion with God. The sermons amount to twenty in all, and it were difficult to say which is better than another. All are so good, rich, and helpful."—Christian Leader.

MYSTERIES of POLICE and CRIME

BY

MAJOR ARTHUR GRIFFITHS.

FULLY ILLUSTRATED.

A splendid Rembrandt Photogravure of Claude Duval from the celebrated Picture by W. P. Frith, R.A., will be given with Part I.

In this work Major Arthur Griffiths deals more particularly with the "mysteries" of crime and its partial or complete detection; with offences not immediately brought home to their perpetrators; offences prepared in secret, committed by offenders who have remained long, perhaps entirely, unknown, but who have generally met with their true deserts; offences that have in consequence exercised the ingenuity of pursuers, showing the highest development of the game of hide-and-seek, where the hunt is man, where one side fights for life and liberty, immunity from well-merited reprisals, the other is armed authority to capture the human beast of prey.
